What Does It Cost to Feed

"International Stock Food' At $14.00 per Hundred.

The uverage feed of "International Steel Peed" for Pattening Hogs is two thirds of one pound per month. Only Costs to cents per month.

For soo to sag Shoats, the average feed is a one third of one pound per month. Only tests g cents per month. Per 50-ib. Pigs, the average feed is one fifth of one pound per month. Only Cost 3 costs per month.

To use one feed per day for Sucking Sow only costs 7 cents per Menth.

It is not only by far the cheapest to use, but it is sold under the strongest printed reliable guarantee of any similar preparation in the world. Our guarantee is as good as gold.

On account of small sized feed it is much cheaper for steckmen to use at $14.00 per hundred pounds than many other kinds would be at $7.00 per hundred. Do not be dessived by large package at small price They always requires very large sized feed to give results. Always compare number of feeds to the pound as well as the price per pound.

Cowing to very superior vegetable medication we obtain better reenits by using a small sized feed than other preparation can show with a large sized feed.
